HUMOR and ADVERTISING

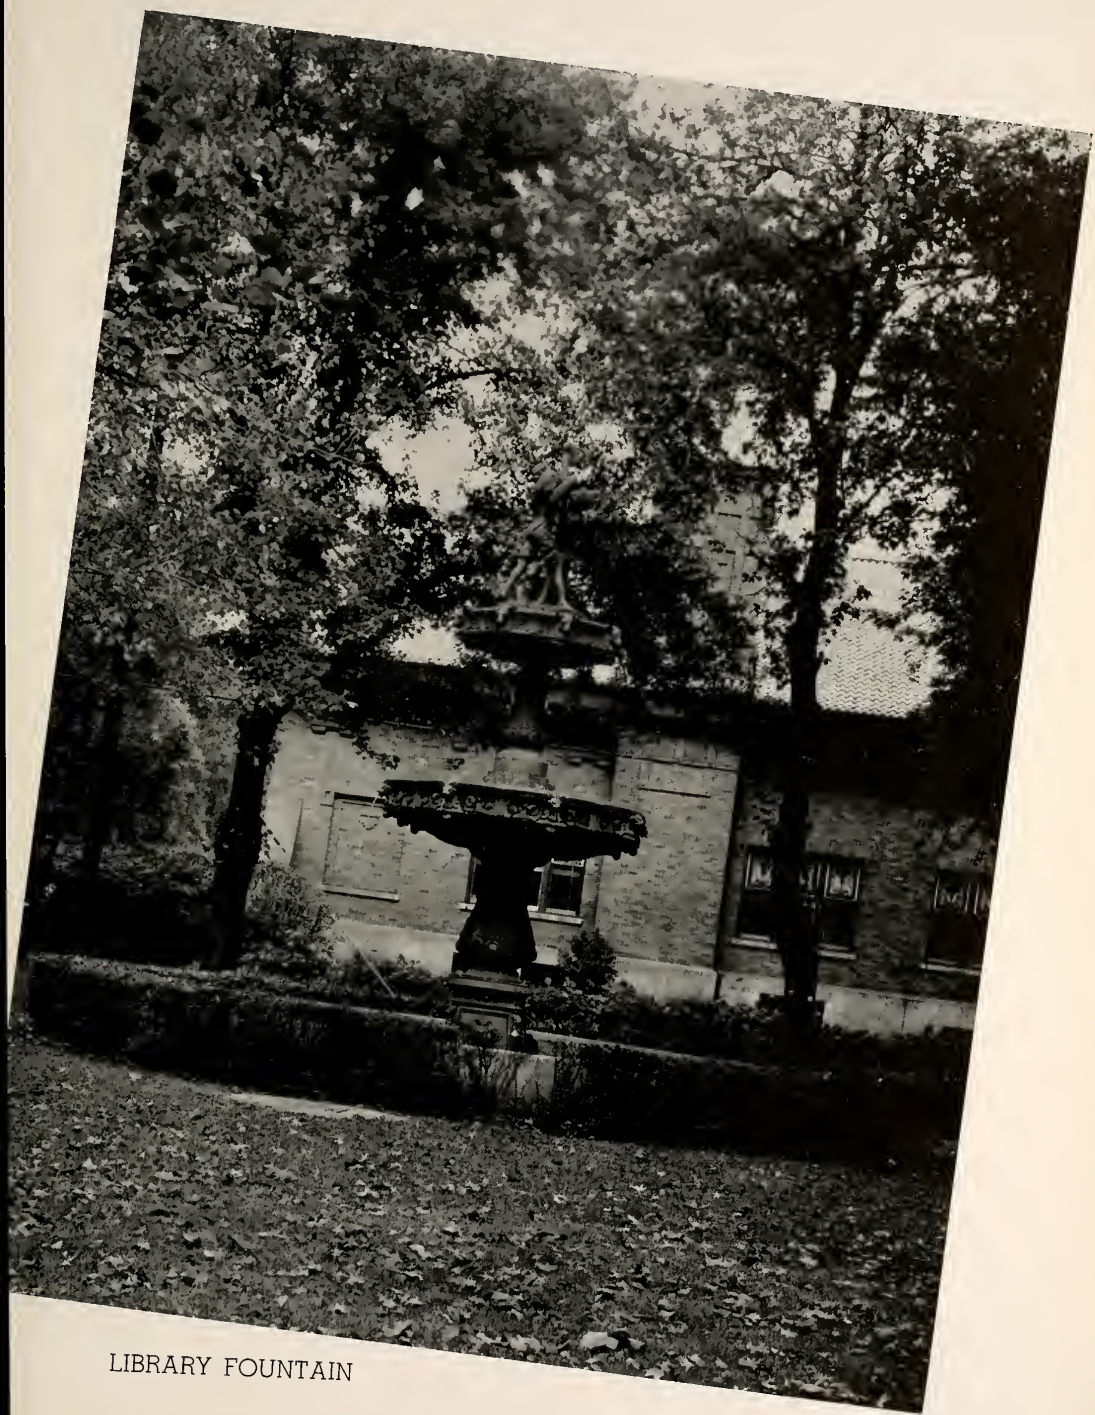

FORWARD

The theme of our annual this year is based on that period of history known as the "Gay 90's." In the following pages we have tried to recapture a little of that exciting and glittering decade which is so well known to young and old alike. The progress of the world today in comparison to those years will become more evident as you progress through our book.

Administration and Classes

PRESIDENT HUSSELMAN

Mr. E. A. Husselman is now embarking on his fourth term as a member of the Auburn School Board. His record in the three preceding years reveals him as competent and capable in his position. Perhaps the fact that his daughter is a teenager like ourselves and susceptible to the same troubles, helps explain his understanding and tact in dealing with students and their various problems.

SECRETARY WEINERT

Mr. W. G. Weinert is now serving his first term as a member of the Auburn School Board. He is a leading businessman in our city, and comes in contact daily with young people. Having a son, as well as a daughter, in our school system should naturally make him more prone to evaluate and weigh our problems. These assets should make him a valuable and competent member of the Board.

TREASURER McINTYRE

Mr. H. C. McIntyre is now serving his second term as treasurer of the Auburn School Board. The expert handling of his post last year ably entitles him to another year of service. His sincere interest in the school system and its functioning may well be due to his long association with many of the citizens and students of our community.

SUPERINTENDENT McKENNEY

Mr. H. L. McKenney, who has for many years been the superintendent of the Auburn City Schools, is a very busy man. His position requires the management not only of A.H.S. but of every other school in our community. His labors extend beyond ordinary office hours, and his many duties do not permit enough leisure time for him to become well acquainted with many of the students. However, his friendly smile and nod have won him a place in the hearts of many of the students of A. H. S. as well as those in the grade schools of this city.

PRINCIPAL MILLER

Mr. Lloyd W. Miller, that man with the ever ready smile and helping hands, has been principal of A. H. S. for twelve years. His many and varied experiences with students have given him a clear understanding of high school students and their numerous problems. He is the man "whose work is never done," as his work deals not only with the problems of the student, but also with the many other intricacies and details which exist in the managing of a high school. However, the great admiration of the student body, and numerous friends he wins are well worth the effort and labor he puts forth.

EMMA STEBING, is the second member of the office staff. Mr. Miller, without her capable hands, would probably be at a loss. Her ready smile, her pleasing personality, and her admirable characteristics have also made her well liked by all those who know and associate with her.

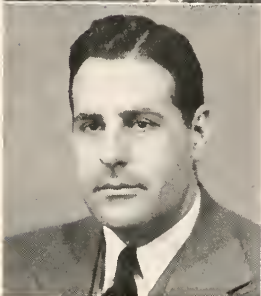

CARMA PATEE, whose efficiency and willingness to help has saved many a blundering student from tears and despair, is Mr. McKenney's competent receptionist. Her congenial personality has won her many friends in the student body and among the members of the faculty.

SENIORS

"It won't be long now" is the familiar saying of the seniors at this stage of their career. With confidence and self assurance they have trekked their way through their final year of high school. It has been a year of fun and increased knowledge. They have tried to be good examples to their less-advanced school mates and they are leaving with their faces toward the future.

The officers chosen to lead the class were: Jack Lochner, president; Bill Weinert, vice-president; Helen Grimm, secretary; and Ted Magnuson, treasurer.

The honor awards were given to Jim Schooley, Mary Bullock, Elizabeth Carper, and Jack Lochner.

The athletic heroes of the class of '49 were: Don Derrow, Bill Geiser, Jack Lochner, Clayton Myers, Wayne Michael, Ted Magnuson, Ken McInturf, Bob Bates, Jim Schooley, Steve Feagler, and Don Butler.

Mr. Weathers was the very able sponsor, and Mrs. Burgoyne and Mrs. Sockrider were the class mothers.

Faculty and students alike wish these seniors continued success as they pass through the portals of A.H.S. for the final time.

JUNIORS

"Ah, yes, we're now upperclassmen." This was the usual thought in the minds of those embarking on their third year of higher learning. The industry, service, and activities of the juniors have put them in a prominent place in A.H.S. this past year.

The boys elected as class officers managed the class affairs: Theo Webb, president; Barney Beers, vice president; Ted Miller, secretary; and Hugh Western, treasurer.

The honor roll was carried by the girls as follows: Joyce Nugen, Retha Manon, Marge Frazee, and Margaret Peckhart.

The athletes of the class were: Barney Beers, Richard Lochner, Don Kelly, Ted Miller, Jack Mochamer, Stanley Muzzillo, Theo Webb, Roger Wertenberger, Bud McComb, Jay Hildebrandt, Alfred Hauk, Larry Refner, Max Reynolds, and James Hamilton.

The juniors were lead by Miss Dawson as class sponsor, and Mrs. Frazee and Mrs. Griffith as class mothers.

In their remaining year in Auburn High School, we are certain that the juniors will find success both in their learning and in their athletic careers.

FRESHMEN

The doors of A.H.S. loomed large and terrifying when first viewed by our timid newcomers—the freshmen. However, they have all become accustomed to the varied routine which they met upon their grand entrance last September, and are marching along side by side with the rest of the student body.

The freshmen chose as their class officers: David Schwartz, president; Alice Romeiser, vice-president; David Timberlin, secretary; and David Schooley, treasurer.

The honor roll awards were received by David Schooley, Virginia Picker, Kesler Teter, and Gail Parsons.

The athletes of this class were: Cal Grosscup, David Michael, David Timberlin, David Schooley, David Schwartz, Fred Bauer, Max Grogg, Carl Murray, John Stebing, Bob Betz, Gene Zerns, David Hinckley, LaVern Sharp, Dale Kuhlman, and David McInturf.

To lead the newcomers, Mr. Deck was chosen, and he was assisted by the class mothers, Mrs. Romeiser and Mrs. Timberlin.

They have made themselves truly a part of the high school to which they belong, and at no time has their success been anything but assured.

EDITORIAL

The senior class presents the "Follies of 1949." The staff has spent many long hours compiling the facts of outstanding events and school activities in order to bring you a brief summary of the happenings in the past nine months. We hope that some day this book will bring back memories of another successful year at Auburn High School.

Mr. Miller and Miss Dawson, our sponsors, greatly deserve our gratitude for they have freely given their time and advice. Not a day passed without one or the other being confronted with some problem relative to the annual.

Mr. Montague of the Fort Wayne Engraving Company has time after time torn our book apart, but he has always put it together again in much better form.

Our appreciation extends to the Auburn Printing Company who printed the annual and the S. K. Smith Company who provided us with the excellent covers.

We wish to express our thanks to Mr. Davis of the Davis Studio for his cooperation in making the photographs for our yearbook.

Without the diligence of the staff it would have been impossible to present the "Follies" to you. Each one did his utmost to make this year's production a success.

We have all enjoyed creating this book and we hope that each of you enjoy it equally well.

Hi - Y

The Hi-Y completed a very progressive year by reorganizing their club constitution and their general club "set-up." They also played a great part in organizing the "Devil's Journal."

The Hi-Y is composed of sixty-two Auburn High School boys who meet twice a month to discuss everyday problems of youth. These meetings consisted of guest speakers, educational movies, and discussion groups.

Those chosen to lead the group for the year were James Schooley, president; Ted Magnuson, vice-president; Bud McComb, secretary; and Theo Webb, chaplain. Mr. Dawson was chosen again as the club sponsor. Mr. Gene Holdeman was the "Y" adviser.

The club sent a large group to the state conference this year. They were B. Weinert, G. DeLucenay, B. Kokenge, J. Mochamer, S. Fribley, B. Houtzer, M. Reynolds, T. Magnuson, and E. Quinn.

They also chose representatives to attend the Angola conference. They were B. Walburn, J. Reynolds, A. Hauk, D. Billings, O. Brown, W. Myers, J. Derrow, and R. Seigel.

Special committees were chosen throughout the year to perform various functions such as planning the parties, organizing programs for the meetings, writing ordinances for the club, preparing a club banner, and selecting appropriate service projects.

The club has done much to live up to its motto: To create, to maintain, and to extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character.

Tri - Hi - Y

The Tri-Hi-Y has been very busy living up to its motto: "To create, maintain, and extend through the home, school, and community, high standards of Christian character."

The officers for the first semester were Helen Grimm, president; Pat Sockrider, vice-president; Joan Mavis, secretary; Mary Bullock, treasurer; and Norma Musser, sergeant-at-arms. Officers for the second semester were Helen Grimm, president; Pat Sockrider, vice-president; Marilyn See, secretary; Mary Bullock, treasurer; June Curran, sergeant-at-arms.

Miss Wood is the high school adviser and Mrs. Gene Holdeman is the adviser from the local "Y." They worked hand-in-hand with the various committees that were chosen to plan the club's social activities.

The club made contributions to the March of Dimes and "CARE." They also chose several girls to usher at the Civic Concerts. During the Christmas season they wrapped toys and clothing for an orphanage in Kentucky. The thing they are most proud of is their part in organizing the "Devil's Journal."

Yes, the Tri-Hi-Y members have contributed much to their school, home, and community.

The Future Farmers Of America

The Auburn chapter of Future Farmers of America organization has increased its membership from 16 to 23. All the members of the agricultural class except one joined the F.F.A. The new officers installed were: President, Clayton Myers; vice-president, Harold Wirts; secretary, Larry Refner; treasurer, Dick Lochner; reporter Gerald Goings; adviser, Mr. Deck.

The chapter's main purpose is to develop and promote a wholesome community life as well as good agricultural practices. Besides, we hope to develop leaders for the community.

The meetings of the Auburn chapter are carried on in a formal way. The meetings which are held on the first Monday of every month are well planned far ahead of time. Educational films are shown, and either a member or some county official gives a talk on some educational topic. The schedule of meetings for the school year of 1948-49 is as follows:

Oct. 2—Putting the club into operation.

Dec. 6—Educational film and talk by member.

Jan. 7—County Agricultural Agent.

Feb. 7—Talk by member.

Mar. 7—State Forester.

Apr. 7—Talk by member.

May 4—Soil Conservationist. Electing officers.

The Auburn chapter has carried out many projects including a pest contest, the sale of jello, collection of scrap metal and special safety program.

In the state scrap metal drive, the Auburn chapter placed fourth among all state chapters. For its accomplishment, the chapter received $25.

The jello project proved to be the main source of income. The demand for jello is great, and the boys have sold nearly 2,000 boxes thus netting a nice profit. The members are putting in many extra hours on this project, but these extra hours are really paying off.

The Safety Program is an addition to the regular activities of the Auburn chapter and the boys hope to make it a permanent one. They are thus members of a larger state project.

Band

Hear the beat of the drums! Guess who's coming? The Auburn High School Band.

Considerable credit is due the band this year for the fine showing they have made.

Surely they will never forget October 30, 1948, the day the band went to Columbia City for the marching contest, unaware of the exciting events ahead of them. Auburn was awarded first in their class. This was the result of a lot of hard work by the band members and the excellent instruction and leadership of Mr. Kellberg.

Much color was added to the football and basketball games this year by the playing and marching of the Auburn band.

The band scored another first through the efforts of Mr. Kellberg when it presented Mr. Buketoff as guest conductor of the band on February 13. On February 19 they entered the solo contest in Fort Wayne, and received a rating of 18 superior, 16 excellent and 11 good. Again in April Auburn played host to the Northern Indiana State Band, Orchestra, and Vocal contest.

Members of the band, band parents, and civic groups of Auburn, recognize the ability of Mr. Kellberg and generously helped in making the band a success. Here's hoping that Mr. Kellberg will be with us for many years.

Chorus

"Keep on hopin' for the sun to rise."
 When these strains drift through the halls of Auburn High School, it means that the chorus is rehearsing.

The chorus under the excellent direction of Miss Daggy has an enrollment of 50 girls.

At Christmas time the chorus, band, and speech class gave a combined program for the student body. The chorus will also go to Waterloo for the district orchestra, band and chorus contest.

A sextette was formed last year and this group has participated in contests at Fort Wayne. An octette was formed this fall and they, along with the sextette, sang for the junior-senior play.

It has been said that music, to be enjoyed by a person, must come from the heart, and these girls have proved this to be true. The girls and Miss Daggy look forward to the continued success of the chorus.

Gitta Sereny Club

The Gitta Sereny Club was organized in 1946 from the suggestion of Miss Gitta Sereny, an Austria-Hungarian actress who gave up her career to help her country.

The club was originally called the International Correspondence Organization. The Auburn High School students carried on correspondence with Austrian boys and girls their own age. The club changed its name when the students decided to do much more than write letters.

The club adopted two schools in Austria. From the contributions of the members, the club sent two "CARE" packages to each school. The club put on several drives which they opened to the whole school. These drives resulted in a large box of assorted soaps, two boxes of school supplies, and several large bags of clothing.

These things will go a long way in helping their foreign friends and promoting world friendship.

The officers for the year were Elizabeth Carper, president; Jayne Burgoyne, vice-president; Roger Wertenberger, secretary; and Theo Webb, treasurer.

Mr. Miller, who sponsors the club, should be given much credit for the success of this very active organization.

"A Date With Judy"

On November 9, 10, 11, and 12, the comedy, "A Date with Judy," was presented by Mr. Ronald Dawson. This was Mr. Dawson's second presentation in Auburn, and he has done a very commendable job. A large audience attended each of the four performances. Both the cast and the crew did a very splendid job.

The plot is built around a typical teen-aged girl who is trying desperately to be the queen of the dance presented by her club. The person who sells the most subscriptions for the Community Relief Fund is to be chosen queen. Judy and all of her girl friends do all things imaginable to raise money to beat Judy's opponent, Tootsie Whitman.

In their attempts, they put the Foster family in an uproar by getting everyone into a complicated mix-up. When things are looking very dark for Judy with Tootsie being queen and Oogie, Judy's boy friend, taking Tootsie to the dance, Tootsie suddenly develops a case of hives. Everyone is relieved and happy, and the play ends with the whole family in complete exhaustion, while Judy and Oogie vivaciously leave for the dance.

Lettermen's Club 1948-49

The Lettermen's Club consists of those boys who have won letters in the previous year's track season, the football and basketball lettermen of this year, and the cheer leaders. Letters are awarded on the basis of points scored in track, and the number of games played in football and basketball. Special awards of silver track shoes and footballs and basketball letter blankets are given to seniors.

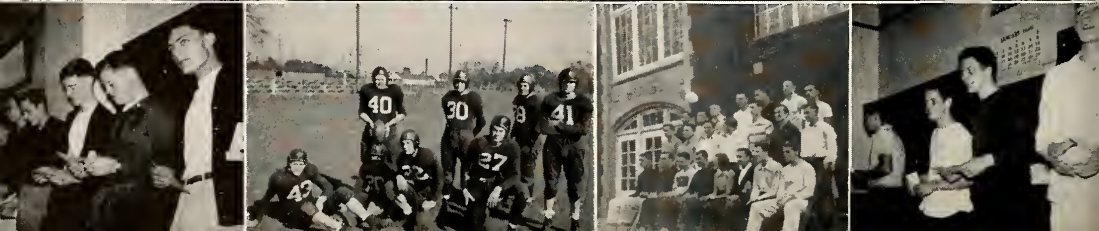

The '48 track squad received awards at an assembly program on May 11, 1948. Letters were presented to R. Bates, B. Beers, J. Bower, W. Boyd, F. Butler, D. Derrrow, A. Hauk, J. Lochner, R. Manon, T. Magnuson, W. Michael, K. McInturf, C. Myers, R. Seigler, J. Schooley, F. Scott, B. Scott, and P. Rodecap, the latter, the student manager. The seniors on the track team, who received silver track shoes, are J. Bower, W. Boyd, F. Butler, R. Manon, R. Seigler, F. Scott, B. Scott.

On December 21, 1948, the football awards were presented to the members of the football team, which this year tied for the NEIC championship. R. Bates, B. Beers, D. Butler, S. Butler, D. Derrrow, S. Feagler, C.

Hampshire, P. Hathaway, J. Hildebrandt, J. Lochner, R. McComb, K. McInturf, T. Magnuson, W. Michael, T. Miller, C. Myers, M. Reynolds, J. Schooley, H. Wirts, W. Geiser, and W. Weinert, the student manager, were awarded letters and R. Bates, D. Butler, D. Derrrow, S. Feagler, W. Geiser, J. Lochner, K. McInturf, T. Magnuson, W. Michael, C. Myers, and J. Schooley were presented with their silver footballs.

The basketball awards came late this year due to the fact the boys were too busy winning their way to the finals of the state tournament to bother with them any sooner. But on April 26, 1949, the entire first ten—D. Derrrow, K. McInturf, R. Bates, J. Schooley, R. Werthenberger, D. Kelly, T. Webb, T. Miller, R. McComb, and B. Beers—received varsity letters, and H. Western received his manager's letter. The senior letter blankets were awarded to D. Derrrow, K. McInturf, R. Bates, and J. Schooley. Carolyn Mitchell and John Renner were presented well-earned yell letters. Jim Schooley was awarded the free throw medal, which is based on the percentage of free throws made over 25.

G. A. A.

The Girl's Athletic Association has been a very active organization which holds the interest of many high school girls.

Some of the sports in which the girls participate are speedball, volleyball, basketball, badminton, swimming, archery, and bowling. As you can see, they are kept very busy.

In the early fall of 1948, G.A.A. sent two girls along with Miss Van Deursen to the second State G.A.A. camp. This year's camp was held at Pokagon State Park. Here during the three days when the camp was open, the girls took part in many activities.

During the volleyball season, Auburn,

Concordia, Kendallville, and Columbia City took part in a volleyball tournament at Columbia City. Auburn came home "champs," for they sent 17 very capable girls.

In the spring of 1949, the G.A.A. banquet was held at the Auburn Hotel. This banquet is the "high spot" of the year for the G.A.A. girls, for at this time several awards are given to girls who have earned them.

The officers for 1948-1949 were Barbara Bauer, president; Susan Sanders, vice-president; Jayne Burgoyne, secretary; and Helen Grimm, treasurer. The sponsor for the G.A.A. club is Miss Van Deursen.

Teen-Y

The Teen-Y is a national organization of the Y.M.C.A. It was organized by their present sponsor, Mrs. Gene Holdeman. She felt the freshmen and sophomore girls should have a club. They seem to agree because it has been a very successful organization.

They meet at the local "Y" on the second and fourth Monday of every month. Their meetings consists of speakers and discussion groups.

The officers, Charlotta Sellew, president; Mary Alice Schooley, vice-president; Virginia Grogg, secretary; Joan Swally, treasurer; Sharon Sprott, sergeant-at-arms, have done an excellent job.

Mrs. V. R. Swalley, their club mother, has done much to make this year a success.

Their social schedule has been very full. They started out the year with their annual picnic at Eckhart Park. They held their formal initiation at the "Y." At Christmas the club went group caroling. They also sold home made candy at Thimlar's Variety Store, and they gave the proceeds to "CARE" and the March of Dimes.

This is the kind of activity that makes Auburn proud of their future citizens.

The Devil's Journal

This year a new extra-curricular activity was added to the already long list.

Since the discontinuation of the CHATTER-BOX which folded up in the early thirties because of financial reasons, there has been a smothering desire among the students to print another school paper.

In the school year of 40-41 a spark flickered. The students issued a mimeographed paper called the WINDJAMMER, but this proved unsuccessful and the spark died out.

This year another fire was kindled by the presidents of the Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y. After much discussion A.H.S. gave birth to a school paper. The presidents of the two clubs were appointed editor and assistant editor.

The first issue of the newcomer had no name. A contest was held to name the paper and the gossip column. The winning names were submitted by Fred Bauer, who named the paper THE DEVIL'S JOURNAL, and Joan Swalley, who branded the gossip column DEVILTRY.

The DEVIL'S JOURNAL was to be a weekly paper, but it was changed to a bi-monthly paper.

The students came up against many problems, but somehow they have managed to solve them.

Much credit for the Journal's success goes to Helen Grimm, editor; Jim Schooley, assistant editor; and the faculty advisers, Miss Duguid and Mr. Miller.

This is just another project in which the students have shown themselves capable of handling a large job.

The Librarians

If it is references you want, our school library has them. Our Auburn High School library and the librarians are another of the many assets of our school. We can boast of an appropriate and complete reference library.

All the books and librarians are under the supervision of Miss Carol Dawson. Special tribute should be made to her for her efforts. Everyday we see her taking care of the many details involved in running an efficient library. The librarians have aided many bewildered students with the problems of their assignments, which at first seemed to have no answer.

This year's capable librarians held many responsibilities. Each one received some training in helping students to find the material which they needed. They have also kept the books checked in and out. We must not overlook all the work necessary to keep the book shelves and magazine rack in order. The work of the librarians, as you can see, is an almost endless job. For their work and efforts, the librarians deserve the sincere gratitude of their fellow students.

AUBURN ATHLETIC

COACH YOUNG'S football team came through for the third consecutive year with the NEIC trophy. "Zeke" is also coach of the track team.

Nearly every student in Auburn High School belongs to the Auburn Athletic Association. The reason for this is simple. To become a member of the A.A.A. a student must be a member of the football team, basketball team, or track team, be a yell leader or manager, or merely be a season ticket holder.

Since this club was organized to promote school spirit and increase enthusiasm, pep sessions are held in the big gym before all the big games.

The A.A.A. also chooses the yell leaders. This year those elected were Carolyn Mitchell, John Renner, and Gail Parsons. Under the leadership of these three, a number of new yells have been learned and spirit and enthusiasm have run high.

The managers for the year were Bill Weinert, football; Hugh Western, basketball; and Jack Lochner, statistician for basketball. Track manager for 1948 was Paul Rodecap.

Football 1948-49

What are the hottest days in the year? Why, the first three weeks of football practice, of course! On August 16, approximately sixty boys reported for their annual Turkish bath. The remnants of last year's undefeated squad consisted of twelve lettermen. Nine were seniors, Jim Schooley, Wayne Michael, Jack Lochner, Bill Geiser, Clayton Myers, Steve Feagler, Ted Magnuson, Pete Butler, and Don Darrow; and three were juniors, Ted Miller, Max "Huck" Reynolds, and Barney Beers. The job of wiping the blood off Jack Lochner's face went to Bill Weinert, who performed his other duties of manager very capably, too. These boys were joined by Bob Bates, Ken McInturf, Buck Hampshire, Jay Hildebrandt, and many others to produce a team which suffered only one defeat in tying for the conference championship.

The first game was against Columbia City on September 10. Good passing aided the Red Devils' attack as they fought off the Eagles, 13-6. The next week, however, the spoilers came to town in the form of Decatur. The Yellowjackets stopped a 24-game winning streak that was four years accumulating as they rolled over a dead bunch of Red Devils, 14-0.

Determined to get a new string of wins going, the Red and Black outfought the Bluffton Tigers. Although tackle Bill Geiser and back Pete Butler were out of the line-up, the Red Devils passed and ran their way to a 6-0 victory. Threatening all the time, Auburn was able to push the ball over the goal line only once, on a charge by Beers. Steve Feagler became the first Red Devil to lay aside his uniform for the year when he dislocated his shoulder in a practice session, but Buck Hampshire did a good job in his place at guard for the balance of the season. Hartford City became Auburn's third victim by the lopsided score of 39-0. Darrow, Reynolds, and Beers did the greater part of the running and scoring in the fracas.

The Howe Cadets threw a momentary scare into the Red Devils, but with good pass-catching by Wayne Michael and Ken McInturf and hard running by Darrow and Beers, the Cadets were added to the list of scalps by a score of 20-0. Jim Schooley was out of this game and the next with a slight concussion received in practice. Another set of Cadets was taken in tow by the Red Devils as Concordia knuckled under, 14-7. The middle of the line—Lochner, Myers, and Geiser—showed up very well in this game, and McInturf did his usual good work in pass-catching, kicking, and tackling, but Wayne Michael received a twisted knee that kept him out of most of the game and the rest of the season. The undefeated Warsaw Tigers came to Carr field and immediately got the jump on the Red Devils, but after that one score, any Tiger who came past the line of scrimmage took his life in his hands. Bill Geiser was lost for the remainder of the season with a ruptured blood vessel in his leg that made it swell up and turn all different colors.

New Haven took a bad beating at the hands of Auburn, 39-7, in a game which featured many long runs and good passes. Ted Miller and Pete Butler completed passes for half the touchdowns, and Don Darrow ran wild through the Bulldog line. The Garrett game on October 27 was a sad day for Steve Feagler, with his dislocated shoulder; Bill Geiser, with his gigantic "stump"; Wayne Michael, with his twisted knee; and Pete Butler, with his conglomerate sprains and bruises. This was to be the last game for each of the boys. Mixed plays brought victory to the Red Devils.

Auburn had nine men who figured in the conference teams. Jack Lochner made the first conference team for the third straight year at tackle, and Jim Schooley was selected at first string end. Myers, at guard, Magnuson, at center, and Derrow, at halfback, were on the second team, and Ken McInturf, Buck Hampshire, Ted Miller, and Barney Beers were given honorable mention.

Finally, on December 21, the team was rewarded for its efforts on the gridiron by letters and silver footballs. Letters were given to Bob Bates, Barney Beers, Pete Butler, Steve Butler, Don Derrow, Steve Feagler, Buck Hampshire, Paul Hathaway, Jay Hildebrandt, Jack Lochner, Chick McComb, Ken McInturf, Ted Magnuson, Wayne Michael, Ted Miller, Clayton Myers, Huck Reynolds, Jim Schooley, Harold Wirts, Bill Geiser, and Bill Weinert, the student manager.

Basketball 1948-49

This year Auburn High has had a basketball team and season of which it can boast for many years to come. The '49 edition of the Red Devils was, without a doubt, one of the best the school has ever had. Hanging up a record of 16 games without a loss and a season record of 18 wins and 2 losses, the '49ers rambled all the way to the State Finals in the annual IHSAA tourney before succumbing to the eventual State Champs. The Red Devils brought the NEIC trophy back to the halls of AHS by winning all of their conference games, and they gave the school its first holiday tourney trophy.

Practice this year began on November 1, when 45 boys answered Coach Showalter's annual call. The first team was cut down to ten boys—four seniors: Bob Bates, Don Derrow, Ken McInturf, and Jim Schooley; and six juniors: Don Kelly, "Chick" McComb, Ted Miller, Theo Webb, Roger Wertenberger and Barney Beers. Hugh Western was selected as the student manager, and Jack Lochner was made statistician.

The season opened with a tough job — four games in eight days. The Red Devils looked rather ragged in skimming by Hartford City, 48-45, on Friday night, and then were forced to go all out to beat Ashley the next night by the same margin, 42-39. On Wednesday and Friday of the next week, Butler and Concordia of Fort Wayne managed to stay with us only in the first half before they were beaten convincingly by scores of 50-26 and 53-33, respectively. After such an auspicious start, the Red Devils couldn't be talked out of any victories for a long time. Again the Auburn victory margin was three points as South Side bit the dust, 39-36. The trail to the NEIC championship began as New Haven knuckled under, 41-31. North Side became the third of the Fort Wayne schools to say "Uncle" as they were beaten 55-41. The Red Devils knocked off Garrett, 39-33, and then took over the unofficial city championship of Fort Wayne by edging Central, 39-38. In the holiday tourney, staged here among Kendallville, Angola, Nappanee, and Auburn, the Red Devils turned the trick by cracking a surprise Angola zone defense, 52-33, and then swamping a tired Nappanee team by 66-33. The following week we faced Angola in regular season play, and again they tasted defeat, 48-34. Elkhart took a drubbing, 53-35, and then, in one of the crucial games of the year, the Red Devils beat a good Kendallville team, 36-25, in spite of illness on the squad. Warsaw, football NEIC co-champs with Auburn, couldn't maintain the pace set by the Red and Black and went home thirty points in arrears, 56-26. Another football revenge took place when we licked Decatur 54-34. The night after that rampage, Mishawaka brought a team of giants to the local goalhall. Although they tried every possible way short of homicide, the Red Devils couldn't put it over, and they ended their victory string, 45-51. Auburn beat Columbia City 55-34 to assure at least a tie for the conference crown, but lost their chance to lose fewer games than any other Auburn team as Wabash administered a heartbreaking defeat, 40-41. In the final game of the season, the Red Devils served notice that they weren't ready to quit playing for the year as they took the conference championship by slaughtering Bluffton, 53-29.

In the Sectional we drew Butler as our first opponent. A combination of jitters and hard driving on the part of the Butler boys resulted in a close game, 52-43. As the Red Devils settled down, however, victories came easier. Churubusco dropped out of the tourney as they suffered a 62-39 defeat, Garrett took the count for the second time of the year by a score of 57-33, and we beat Angola, 71-47, for the third straight time to take over as Sectional champions. In the Regional, held at North Side's gym, we put the Howe Military Cadets through their paces, 45-20, and then out-clawed the Central Tigers, 51-47, to represent this area at the Muncie Semi-finals for the first time since 1945. The Kokomo 'Cats, who also attended the '45 show, reached the end of the line, 54-43. One of the toughest games of the year came in the evening, when New Castle gave us quite an argument over who was to play for the Northeast down at Indianapolis. However, after a rough-and-tumble affair, it was Auburn by two, 45-43, as the first Semi-final championship in the history of the school came to rest in the Auburn trophy case. At the State finals, though, the Red Devils ran into a bunch of never-say-die Wildcats from Jasper, who became the third and last team to defeat the '49ers. After a see-saw game, Jasper came out ahead, 53-48. Some of the sting was taken out of the loss, however, when Jasper was crowned State champ in the evening, and Jim Schooley, a member of the Red Devils team, was awarded the A. L. Trester medal for mental attitude.

Many honors came to the Red Devils, both individually and as a team. Roger Wertenberger and Jim Schooley were placed on the all-conference first team at guard and center, respectively; Ken McInturf was awarded a forward spot on the second team, and Don Derrrow, Don Kelly, and Barney Beers were given honorable mention. In addition to the conference selections, several Red Devils were placed on all-Sectional, -Regional, -Semi-final, and -State teams. Besides the new record of 16 games won in a row, the '49ers established a record by winning 26 games in a season, another by winning 13 of them on our home floor, a third by becoming the school's first State final tourney entrant, and, finally, by scoring 1449 points in a single season. Jim Schooley broke Bill Wattier's old individual scoring record for a season by dumping in 450 points.

On April 20, Barney Beers, Don Kelly, "Chick" McComb, Ted Miller, Theo Webb, Roger Wertenberger, Bob Bates, Don Derrrow, Ken McInturf, and Jim Schooley were awarded varsity letters. "Bert" Western received a manager's letter, and Carolyn Sue Mitchell and John Renner, who so ably performed as cheer leaders this year, were presented with yell letters. The four seniors—Bob Bates, Don Derrrow, Ken McInturf, and Jim Schooley—received their senior letter blankets, and Jim Schooley was awarded the foul shooting medal for making the highest percentage of free throws throughout the year.

The "Imps" is the name given to the reserve basketball squad at Auburn. This team usually is made up of sophomores and freshmen, although occasionally juniors play on it for practice. The reserve team, which is much like a "training camp" for future Red Devils, plays a full eighteen-game schedule, but does not participate in tournament play.

The Imps played a tough schedule this year, as did the Red Devils, but, unlike their "big brothers," they lost several of the close ball games. They still managed to come over the hump, however, winning ten of their eighteen games. The starting five of the Imps was selected from a group of about eight boys—Steve Butler, John Garns, Paul Hathaway, Bill Myers, Bob Seigel, Jerry Griffith, Cal Grosscup, and Lyle Siemen. All but Cal are sophomores. Dave Michael, Dave Timberlin, and Jack Wappes, freshmen, also saw action with the Imps.

The reserves started slowly this year, losing five of their first seven games. Then, however, they turned the tables on their opponents, winning five of the next seven. One more loss and three more wins completed the schedule. The scoring for the Imps was fairly even. Billy "Dead-Eye" Myers led the group with 111 points, and he was followed closely by Steve "Elbows" Butler with 98. Noon League

Again this year the familiar noon league games were enjoyed by noon hour enthusiasts. This activity is under the supervision of Coach "Zeke" Young. The Varsity basketball players referee these games.

The captains for this year were as follows: B. Weinert, B. Geiser, C. Myers, J. Lochner, L. Refner, R. Kokenge, T. Magnuson, C. Shoude, and M. Reynolds. W. Michael had to drop out early in the season because of a leg injury and his team was divided and placed on the remaining teams.

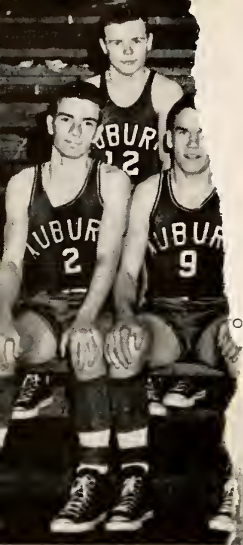

Bill Weinert came through with the winning team. The players making up Bill's team were Hugh Western, Bob Riddle, Jack Smith, David Hinckley, Glen DeLucenay, and Bob Burgoyne.

The results of the season were as follows:

Team	Won	Lost
Geiser	8	7
Kokenge	7	9
Lochner	6	9
Magnuson	9	5
Michael	1	1
Myers	11	5
Refner	4	11
Reynolds	5	9
Shoude	5	10
Weinert	12	2

Track 1948

On March 15, 1948, Coach "Zeke" Young issued his annual call for the "Polar Bear Club" — Auburn High's track men. Sixty-five boys reported to the well-liked coach to try to better last year's record. The opening meet of the season was held at Carr field against Butler. The Windmills were buried under an avalanche of points, 88-43. Wayne Michael led the attack with two firsts in the pole vault and high jump. "Mike" repeated his double win and was joined by Barney Beers, who won the hundred and broad jump, as the Red Devils snowed Kendallville under by an 86-39 score.

Garrett was a little tougher, but, with the aid of high scoring in the field events, Auburn pulled off their third win of the season, 61 $\frac{1}{3}$ to 53 $\frac{2}{3}$. An indication of the strength of the '48 team came on April 24, when the boys presented "Zeke" with the Goshen Relays Class B championship trophy. The middle-distance men participated in two or three events apiece as the Red Devils outclassed the rest of the Class B teams by five points and better. The next week Auburn continued in its winning ways by knocking off Decatur, 82 $\frac{1}{2}$ -42 $\frac{1}{2}$. Highlights of the meet included a clean sweep of the shot put by Myers, Ceiser, and Scott, and the low hurdles by Fred Butler, Beers, and "Sparrie" Derrow. The team completed its conquest of the "Big Meets" by taking the Kokomo Relays with 30 $\frac{3}{4}$ points—nine points ahead of the nearest competitor. Wayne Michael broke the pole vault record with an 11' 7 $\frac{1}{16}$ " leap, and Fred Butler fractured the low hurdle mark with a winning time of 24 seconds flat.

The North Side Papooses took the Imps in a B team meet, 70-45. Barney Beers pulled a leg muscle which kept him out of the conference meet the next week, in which Garrett defeated the Red Devils for the only time during the whole season. The event was held in a driving rain, and that condition, plus the fact that Auburn failed to do its usual heavy scoring in the dashes, added up to a 62 $\frac{1}{2}$ -61 $\frac{1}{3}$ loss for the Red and Black.

In the County Meet, Auburn resumed the track throne of the district with a 26 $\frac{1}{2}$ point margin over Garrett, the nearest competitor. On May 15, the sectional meet was held at North Side's track. The Red Devil mile relay team unofficially broke Auburn's record for that event. Wayne Michael copped a second in the pole vault and then went on to the State meet. Jim Schooley tied for second in the high jump but lost the toss which would have enabled him to join "Mike" in his trip to Indianapolis. On May 2 the coveted letters and senior awards were given to the boys who had fulfilled the requirements. Letters were awarded to Bob Bates, Barney Beers, John Bower, Wayne Boyd, Fred Butler, Don Derrow, Al Hauk, Jack Lochner, Bob Manon, Ted Magnuson, Wayne Michael, Kenny McInturf, Clayton Myers, Dick Seigel, Jim Schooley, Forrest Scott, and Bob Scott. Paul Rodecap, who did an excellent job in taking care of the "boys," received his manager's letter.

The seniors, who received their silver track shoes, were John Bower, Wayne Boyd, Fred Butler, Bob Manon, Dick Seigel, Forrest Scott, and Bob Scott.

1. Take as much time as possible when going to class. It shortens periods.
2. Study out loud. It helps your neighbor.
3. Pupils should not look up reference work—it's hard on the books.
4. Bring playthings to school. They keep you from being idle.
5. Everyone should use the same comb. It's healthful.
6. Run up stairs three at a time. The stairs will last longer.
7. When the bell rings, always continue your conversation.
8. Instead of walking to the waste paper basket, throw your paper. It saves steps and also keeps the janitor busy.

HOME WORK

The sofa sagged in the middle.
The shades were pulled just so.
The family has retired;
And the evening lamp burned low.

There came a sound from the sofa.
The clock was striking two.
The freshman slammed his textbook
With a thankful "Well, I'm through!"

They were looking at a sign in the country store window which read:

"Ladies Ready To Wear Clothes."

"Well, its darn near time."
